

e-Stockholm'08

XXIII Nordic Conference on Law & IT
Aula Magna 17-19 November 2008

Track IV

Legal Information Retrieval in the Digital Age

Tuesday 18 November

13.30 Legal Information Retrieval in the Digital Age: Challenges in current legal information retrieval methods

13:45

14:00

13.40 Language technology to improve information retrieval –Hercules Dalianis

14:15

14:10 Information Access – Beyond Simple Retrieval – Jussi Karlgren

14:45

15:00

14:40 The "i" in legal information retrieval – Christine Kirchberger

15:30

15.30 Finding legal information through analysis and content-driven user conversations – Henning Klomp

16:00

16:00

16.00 Is searching the best way to retrieve legal documents? – Trygve Harvold

16:30

16.30 A common work flow – Design and Production – Søren Broberg Nielsen

17:00

Wednesday 19 November

09:00

09:00

9.00 New School Case Law Knowledge Management – Richard De Mulder

09:30

9.30 Enriching legal text corpora with ontologies. An option for higher pricing of legal information systems? – Erich Schweighofer

10:00

10:00

10.00 Automatic Detection of Argumentation in Legal Cases – Raquel Mochales Palau

10:30

Coffee

11:00

11:00

11.00 Beyond free text search – structured querying of legal information – Peter Krantz

11:30

11.30 Digital law – a law firm perspective on information retrieval – David Eriksson

12:00

12:00

12.00 General discussion

E-survey

Question for the speakers

What do you expect to be the most crucial legal issue in the information society 2010?

E- vote!

- At <http://www.juridicum.su.se/iri/e08/vote>
- Any time before Wednesday 16:00
- Voting booth available near registration desk
- Requires voting code provided in your conference folder
 - including also a list of statements

Outcome

- Will be presented at concluding panel discussion
- Will be considered in the position paper:
 - "E-Stockholm '08 Legal Agenda"