

Stockholm
University

Law for Social- Ecological Resilience

International and transdisciplinary conference

17-19 November 2010
Stockholm University, Sweden

www.azote.com

The Conference is co-arranged by Stockholm Environmental Law and Policy Centre, at the Faculty of Law, and Stockholm Resilience Centre, both at Stockholm University.

www.juridicum.su.se/resilience

Programme Wednesday 17/11

- 12.00-13.00 Registration
- 13.00-13.30 Opening and welcome
Jonas Ebbesson, Stockholm University
Kåre Bremer, Vice-Chancellor at Stockholm University
- 13.30-14.10 Carl Folke, Stockholm University
What on Earth is Resilience?
- 14.10-14.50 Jonas Ebbesson, Stockholm University
What in Law is Resilience?
- 14.50-15.10 Coffee
- 15.10-15.50 Frank Biermann, VU University, Amsterdam
Agency and Accountability in Earth System Governance:
Legal implications
- 15.50-16.30 Ellen Hey, Erasmus University, Rotterdam
Social-Ecological Resilience and International Law: Whose Resilience?
- 16.30-16.40 Short break
- 16.40-17.20 Barbara Cosens, University of Idaho
Resilience and Administrative Law in Transboundary River
Governance
- 17.20-18.00 Jutta Brunnee, University of Toronto
International Law and Socio-Ecological Resilience: An Interactional Perspective.
- 18.00- Reception at the Gallery, Aula Magna

Programme Thursday 18/11

09.00-09.10	Opening, Jonas Ebbesson
09.10-09.50	Gerd Winter , University of Bremen “Cap and Trade” and Other Means of Ensuring Societal Resilience in Times of Resource Scarcity
09.50-10.30	Bonnie McCay, Rutgers University, New Jersey The Littoral and the Liminal: Challenges to the Use of Property Rights Approaches to Resilience of Coastal and Marine Systems
10.30-11.00	Coffee
11.00-11.40	Richard Barnes , University of Hull The Capacity of Property Rights to Accomodate Socio-Ecological Resilience
11.40-13.00	Lunch at the Gallery, Aula Magna
13.00-17.45	Parallel workshops:
13.00-14.30	1. Climate Change: General Approaches to Law and Governance	2. Marine Areas and Marine Resources
14.30-15.00	Coffee
15.00-16.30	3. Environmental Governance: Structures and Theories	4. Nature Conservation and Forests
16.30-17.45	5. Environmental Governance: Public Participation and Human Rights	6. Water Cources and Coastal Zones
18.00-	Conference dinner

Workshops Thursday 18/11

1. Climate Change: General Approaches to Law and Governance

* Venla Kinnunen and Sylvia I. Karlsson-Vinkhuyzen: Pathways of Accountability through Parliaments vis-à-vis International Hard and Soft Law: The Case of Finland and Global Climate Governance

* Sanford E. Gaines: Design of a Resilience Post-Kyoto International Climate Regime: A Resilience Assessment of the “Hartwell Paper” Approach.

* Marleen van Rijswijk: Governance of Adaptation to Climate Change: Normative Principles for Adaptation

* Jennifer Mohamed-Katerere and Mike Jones: Climate Change and Resilience: Law Must Do More than Restrain the Heartless

3. Environmental Governance: Structures and Theories

* Ahjon S. Garmestani and Melinda Harm Benson: Actualizing Panarchy within Environmental Policy: Mechanisms for Tweaking Institutional Hierarchies to Mimic the Social-Ecological Systems They Manage

* Stephen Stec: The Three-Generational World: Resilience and Sustainable Development Norm Formation

* Froukje Maria Platjouw: How Consistency in Law Affects the Sustainable Governance of an Ecosystem

* Hugo Tremblay: Eco-Terrorists Facing Armageddon: the Impact of the Defence of Necessity on Law’s Normative Rigidity in a Context of Environmental Crisis

5. Environmental Governance: Public Participation and Human Rights

* Geoffrey W.G. Leane: Governance, Deliberative Democracy and the Internet: New Possibilities for Legitimising Environmental Law and Policy through Public Discourse

* Yves Lador: The UN Human Rights Council in Pursuit of Resilience

* Andreas Duit and Ola Hall: Rule of Law, Stakeholder Participation, and Environmental Management: Evidence from 143 Biosphere Reserves in 55 Countries

2. Marine Areas and Marine Resources

* Per Olsson: Implementing Integrated Approaches for Managing and Governing Large Marine Ecosystem: Legal Challenges in the Baltic Sea Region

* Lena Gipperth: How Does Law Recognize Ecological Boundaries?

* Mikael Karlsson: Precautionary Legislation for Baltic Sea Resilience

* Milena Arias-Schreiber et. al: The Evolution of Adaptive Legal Instruments and the Resilience of the Peruvian Pelagic Fisheries

* Henrik Österblom: Resilience of Illegal Fishing Operators: Using Loopholes in Legal Frameworks at Multiple Layers

4. Nature Conservation and Forests

* M.E.A. Broekmeyer, P.F.M. Opdam, F.H. Kistenkas & S.A. van Rooij: Rethinking Nature Conservation Law: Turning the Natura 2000 Appropriate Assessment Towards a Sustainable Development Assessment

* Minna Pappila: Forest Regulation and Changing Paradigms in Finland and Russia

* Guilherme Cruz de Mendonça: The Relationship Between the Convention on Biological Diversity and Local Law through Resilience: a Study of Paraty Director Plan, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

6. Water Courses and Coastal Zones

* Lasse Baaner: “Good Ecological Status of Surface Water” – a Technical Provision or a Legal Norm?

* Letícia Albuquerque and Renata de Mattos Fortes : Adaptive Co-management for the Coastal Zone: an Alternative to the Dominant Economic Model of Management of Natural Resources in Brazil

* Stella Emery Santana: A Brief Analysis of River Basin and Coastal Management Laws in Brazil – Is there a Possibility for Integrated Ecosystem Approach? The Espirito Santo Case.

* Henrik Josefsson : Trapped Landscapes – A Challenge for Legal Thinking

Programme Friday 19/11

08.30-11.45	Parallel workshops:
08.30-10.15	7. Climate Change: Legal Issues and Instruments	8. Trade Economy and Corporate Activities
10.15-10.45	Coffee
10.45-11.15	9. Water Management	10. Property Rights and Resilience
12.00-13.15	Concluding paneldebate and closure
	Panel: Ellen Hey, Erasmus University Barbara Cosens, University of Idaho David Langlet, Stockholm University
	Moderator: Victor Galaz, Stockholm Resilience Centre

Workshops Friday 19/11

7. Climate Change: Legal Issues and Instruments

* David Langlet: Carbon Dioxide Removal: Is Effective and Adaptive Regulation of Earth Scale Climate Manipulation Conceivable?

* Arie Trouwborst: The EU Wild Birds and Habitats Directives and the Adaptation of Nature to Climate Change

* Annalisa Savaresi: Reducing Emissions from Deforestation under the UNFCCC: A New Opportunity for Forest Governance?

* Monirul Azam: Climate Change Resilience and Technology Transfer: The Role of Intellectual Property

* Herman Kasper Gilissen: The Influence of Liability Law on Adaptation to Climate Change

8. Trade, Economy and Corporate Activities

* Åsa Romson: Legal Certainty vs. Flexibility and Adaptability for Social-Ecological Resilience in International Investment Agreements – a Journey Through Scales of Decision-making

* Inga Carlmann: Ecological Limits v. Economic Growth. The Role of Law and Legal Theory for the Need of Future Generations

* Kadri Sirg: The Independent Recourse Mechanism of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development: Its Practice and Impact

* H. Somsen and F.M. Fleurke: REACH: Is Precaution the Chemicals Industry's Best Friend?

* Dangerman, ATCJ, Vennix, JAM, and Sinke, W: The Energy System, Environmental Problems and the Role of Corporate Law

9. Water Management

* Margot Hurlbert: Law, Resilience and Multi-level Water Governance in the Canadian Prairie Provinces

* Ingo Gentes: Water Law and Politics Under Uncertainty - Implications for Transboundary Water Management in Central America

* Tran Tran: Water is Country, Country is Culture: What is the Significance of Indigenous Knowledge to Water Regulation in the Kimberley, Australia?

10. Property Rights and Resilience

* Barbara K. Woodward: Private Property, State Sovereignty and Common-pool Resources: Models of Global Governance for Social-Ecological Resilience

* Myrna A. Safitri: Strengthening Community Property Rights in Indonesian Forest Areas: Not a Matter of Private or State Property

* Margherita Pieraccini: Commons, Resilience and Relational Legal Pluralism: the Case of the Regole of Ampezzo

